UNIVERSITY

The Felix Posen Post-Doctoral / Junior Faculty Fellowship is intended for scholars from Israel and abroad who have shown exceptional excellence, depth and originality in their academic work, and whose research investigates antisemitism, anti-Jewish hostility and the mechanisms of antisemitic prejudice through the ages, focusing on relations between Jews and non-Jews, particularly in situations of tension and crisis, and may include comparative perspectives on other forms of discrimination and racism.

The Center will award up to two one-year fellowships in the Humanities, the Social Sciences, Law or Economics — beginning October 1, 2020. Fellows are expected to be present at the Center for no less than three days a week and to participate in the Center's academic activities.

The Fellowship offers an annual stipend of $30,000.

Qualified candidates must have completed their Ph.D. no earlier than November 2014. Candidates who have not yet graduated may apply; their acceptance will be conditional upon approval of their degrees by May 1, 2020.

Last date to submit applications is March 30, 2020.

Submissions should include: statement of research plan (5 pages, with title); curriculum vitae and list of publications; a one-page abstract of the PhD; two recommendation letters; PhD degree certificate and complete contact information.
